Are You Keeping Up With THE TIMES?

no moral wrong in a Government employee receiving salary from a private corporation provided there was no contact between the Government and the corporation.

It was recalled that C. W. Hare, an assistant in Mr. Baker's office at $4,000 a year, testified that he remained on the pay roll of the United Gas and Improvement Company, of Philadelphia, at $15,000.

"Mr. Secretary," asked Chairman Hardwick, "is there any law against an employee of the Government receiving a salary from a private corporation while in the public service?"

"I don't know; is there?" Mr. Baker replied.

"Well, I don't know either," Senator Hardwick said, "but do you think it is right, morally, for an employee of the Government to do that?"

"Morally, I can see no objection to it," the Secretary replied.

Mr. Baker added, however, that he had given orders that all employees of the War Department receiving compensation from private concerns immediately to drop one or the other.

SECRET SERVICE TO LOOK UP WILLIAMS

Chairman Overman, of the Senate Propaganda Investigating Committee, conferred today with Department of Justice officials today upon the evidence that is to be presented to the committee next week when it opens its investigation of Bolsheviki and I. W. W. propaganda in the United States.

He let it be known following the conference that an investigation of William Rhyss Williams, former minister of propaganda under Lenin and Trotsky, who is now on a lecture tour in this country, will be undertaken by Secret Service operatives of the Government before he is permitted to testify before the committee. A speech by Williams at a big public meeting last Sunday caused the Senate to start the inquiry.

Williams' refusal to testify in executive session and his statement in a letter to Senator Overman that any investigation "which may even obliquely throw light upon conditions in Russia will be very welcome to him" has given committee members ground for suspecting that he wishes to use the Senate investigation as a propaganda medium.

Documents in Record.

Various documents, including the Bolsheviki constitution and many government decrees of the Soviet government were inserted in the committee record today, so that members of the committee may familiarize themselves with the question with which they are to deal before the investigation opens.

Williams denied today that the Soviet government is conducting any propaganda of any kind in the United States. He asserted that he had undertaken his lecture tour solely upon his own initiative and at his own expense. He knows of no payments by the Bolsheviki to agitators in this country and of no connection between the I. W. W. and the Soviets.

"The Bolsheviki are following a policy of hands off so far as the United States is concerned," Williams declared. "They are conducting a vigorous propaganda in enemy countries—in Germany and Austria—and also in England and France. However, the United States they regard as a friendly country. They wish only to clear away the present misunderstandings that exist in the minds of the American people."

First Witnesses.

American diplomatic and consular officials, recently returned from Russia, and Department of Justice agents who have been engaged in I. W. W. investigations probably will be the first witnesses before the committee. Williams suggested to the committee that he hear Jerome Davis, head of the Y. M. C. A. in Russia; Gregory Yarnes, of the Associated Press, the following members of the American Red Cross Mission to Russia; Col. Raymond Robbins, Col. W. E. Thompson and Major Thomas B. Thatcher, members of the Society of Friends Mission, which has just returned from Russia.

No action was taken by the committee on Williams' suggestions.

SOLONS TO STUDY COST OF SHIPPING

The groundwork for an assault on the seaman's law is being laid in Congress. A subcommittee of the Senate Commerce Committee is to take up Senator Calder's resolution for an investigation of the relative costs of operating American and foreign ships. Calder said today his purpose is to obtain information upon which to base amendments to the seaman's law or other legislation to bring the American operating cost down to the foreign level, and so give American ships a better chance to compete for world trade.

Calder declared, however, that he is against amending the seaman's law so as to cause reduction of American seamen's pay. Some other way will have to be found to equalize matters, he said. He has introduced a bill amending the seaman's law by providing that only 25 per cent, instead of 75 per cent, of the crew shall speak the officers' language; prohibiting sailors demanding their pay and quitting after five days' service; relaxing regulations regarding punishment of sailors.

Friends of the seaman's law are watching every such move, and have declared that any such change with amendments making the law even more drastic than now.

Oh, Boy! Our Yanks Are Going to Eat "Right" While Touring Rhine

The American army of occupation is to be well fed, judging by its last grocery bill. This includes 8,000,000 pounds of flour, 270,000 pounds of sausage, 238,000 pounds of ham, 500,000 pounds of oatmeal, 22,000,000 pounds of sugar, 421,000 pounds of prunes, 2,000,000 cans of soup, and 350,000 pounds of butter and olive. Among the luxuries are 90,000,000 cigarettes, 900,000 pounds of candy, and 632,000 jars of jam.

Most of the food will be shipped down the Rhine to Coblenz by way of Rotterdam.
